Annual Performance Plan Priorities 2021 – 2022 Goals

- From April 1 2022 to March 31 2023:
- Crime Reduction
 - 10% Reduction of thefts (over / under / vehicles)
 - 1200 Visibility patrols (town and county combined)
 - 6 Self-generated drug investigation by GIS
- Community Engagement
 - 30 Community Contacts
- Training (internal priority)
 - 4 In-person for the members

APP Results – Crime Reduction

10% Reduction of thefts (over / under / vehicles):

- In 2022-2023 we saw a combined reduction of 23% of thefts in Edson.
- Staffing level, patrols and visibility, CRU – direct impact on this number.
- November Warrant round up 35 people arrested on multiple warrants, another 25 were checked but had moved

APP Results

- 1200 Visibility patrols (town and county combined):
- In 2022-2023 we completed 2014 patrols, 1153 were in the Town of Edson alone.
- CRU: Targeted local prolific offenders, 4 pro-active drug files, multiple warrants executed, traffic enforcement in problem areas, provided support to GIS and GD members, liaised / worked with oil and gas reps.

APP Results

6 Self-generated drug investigation by GIS:

- In 2022-2023 GIS completed 1 pro active investigation.
- GIS was collapsed due to resource shortages (Sept to Nov).
- Some larger investigations limited their pro-active capabilities:
 - the sexual assault cases at the schools,
 - housing situation in Marlboro
 - Suspicious death / b&e
 - Bait truck operation
- CRU also assisted GIS with their pro-active work, and it has been successful.

APP Results-Community Engagement

Community Contact - 30 contacts

61 community contacts were completed in 2022-2023

- Presentations in schools, attending Canada Day and Remembrance Day activities, the Edson Jamboree, the Bike Rodeo, Gold Rush Daze, Medicine Lodge Rodeo, Lunches with Seniors at the Pioneer Cabin and Town Halls
- Aside from the 61 contacts, the Edson RCMP sent out 27 media releases, attended COP meetings, attended council meetings, met with CAOs, met with protective services departments.
- Members completed 59 school visits / contacts

APP Results - Training
