

Youth Interagency (YIA) Volunteer Application Form

Do you want to give back to your community? Do you believe in the potential of youth and want to see them flourish? Do you enjoy working with youth in fun, recreational settings? Then joining the Edson Youth Interagency (YIA) might be for you.

The Edson Youth Interagency is looking for new committee members and event supervisors!

Committee members must attend monthly daytime meetings (times are flexible and based on what works for the majority), help plan and organize youth events, and supervise at least two activities per season (September-December; January-April; May-August). Event supervisors will be invited to YIA events via email and may accept whatever works within their schedule.

As event times will vary, volunteers should expect to work some evenings and weekends.
